FAQs

- 1. What is a Medallion Signature Guarantee, and where can I obtain one?

A Medallion Signature Guarantee is a special signature guarantee for the transfer of securities. It is a representation by the Guarantor that the signature is genuine and the signer is an appropriate person with the legal capacity to sign. You can obtain the guarantee through an eligible financial institution, such as a commercial bank, trust company, securities broker/dealer, credit union, or savings institution participating in the Medallion Signature Guarantee program.
- 2. Is my transfer request eligible for a Medallion Signature Guarantee Waiver, and how can I obtain one?

A Medallion Signature Guarantee Waiver is offered for transfers of shares with aggregate value of $10,000 or less on the date on which the transfer request is signed. You can obtain a waiver for the Medallion Signature Guarantee requirement by submitting the necessary transfer documents, a check payable to Equiniti Trust Company, LLC (Market value under $5,000, Fee: $100, Market value from $5,000 to $10,000, Fee: $200), a copy of a valid government-issued identification with a signature (such as a driver's license or a passport), AND supporting documents reflecting your capacity to act on behalf of the shareholder, if applicable.
- 3. What is a Legal Representative?

A "Legal Representative" is defined as a person empowered to act for another person who is recognized by law with respect to the individual's property or interests. A representative can be an executor, administrator, personal representative, trustee of a trust, power of attorney, receiver, guardian, custodian; or conservator agent, an officer, a partner, or an associate of an organization.
- 4. What is a W-9 Form, and why is it required?

A W-9 Form certifies the Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN, also known as a Social Security Number or Employer Identification Number) listed on an account. A W-9 Form is required each time a new registration or new account is established. The IRS requires that Transfer Agents withhold a portion of the earnings on accounts that have not been certified by submitting a completed W-9 Form.
- 5. What if I am not a U.S. citizen or do not have a Social Security Number?

If you are not a U.S. citizen or do not have a Social Security Number, please use the appropriate W-8 Form (<http://www.equiniti.com/us/ast-access/individuals>). In this case, leave the Substitute W-9 Form section on the Transfer of Ownership form blank. If an account is not certified, the new owner, who is a non-U.S. taxpayer, will be subject to U.S. withholding from all earnings or sale proceeds as regulated by the IRS.
- 6. What if I cannot locate my certificate?

To provide you with replacement certificates, we must be notified of the loss in writing. You may also report the loss online by accessing your account at www.equiniti.com/us. A bond of indemnity to replace lost shares must be obtained at your expense.

FAQs

7. Are dividend options available to the new owner?

Dividend policies depend on the particular stock held. Listed below are the guidelines for dividend payments, provided that the company pays dividends.

When a company has a Dividend Reinvestment Plan (DRIP) that allows for reinvestment of dividends, the following applies: The new owner may choose the reinvestment option as provided on the Transfer of Ownership with a W-9 Form.

The new owner may also enroll in the plan by accessing their account from our website at www.equiniti.com/us.

When a company does not have a DRIP, the following applies: The new account will be set up to receive dividend checks. Can cash dividends be set up for direct deposit for the new account? If the company offers direct deposit of dividends, the new owner can arrange for direct deposit by downloading a direct deposit form from our website at <http://www.equiniti.com/us/ast-access/individuals>.

Please be advised some companies do not offer direct deposit of dividends.

8. What is a Certificate of Appointment?

9. What is the Affidavit of Domicile Form, and when should I complete one?
